Dear Mr. Tumulty:

As the President will be expected to give a brief address to the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America, at two-fifteen on Thursday the twelfth instant, in accordance with the appointment which you so kindly arranged, he may need some data relative to the movement for the purpose of preparing his remarks. This I am having sent to you from our headquarters in New York. When it comes in will you kindly arrange to have it placed in the Presidents hands.

Thanking you for your assistance in this connection, I am

Yours very cordially,

Hon. Jos. P. Tumulty,
White House,
WASHINGTON, D. C.
