January 12, 1915

Memorandum for the President:

Mr. Colin H. Livingstone, the President of the Boy Scouts of America, says that the annual convention of that organization and of its National Council is to be held in Washington during the week of February 8th. He asks if the President will receive the delegates to the convention (from 800 to 1000) in the East Room and say a few words of greeting.

The President has an engagement to receive the delegates to the convention of the International Association of Master Painters and Decorators (400) in the East Room on the afternoon of February 11th.
