Sir:-

At a recent meeting of the Executive Board of the Boy Scouts of America, it was voted that a letter should be sent to you expressing the appreciation of the officers of the organization for your splendid address given in connection with our annual meeting on February 11th in the East Room of the White House.

The fact that you so happily referred to character development in the way you did was especially appreciated because it will help us in having more clearly understood the right point of view with reference to this fundamental feature of the boy scout program.

Your continued interest and help in our efforts to promote the cause of Scouting is a great asset to the American people and we very much appreciate your co-operation.

With much respect, I remain,

Yours in the cause of good citizenship,

James E. West
Chief Scout Executive.

Hon. Woodrow Wilson,
President of the United States,
Honorary President, Boy Scouts of America,
Washington, D.C.
