December 14th, 1927.

To
The Norwegian Storting Nobel Committee,
19, Drammensvejen,
OSLO.

Gentlemen,

I have the honour to suggest and to recommend to you the name of Lieutenant General Sir Robert Baden-Powell, Baronet, G.C.V.O., K.C.V.O., K.C.B., C.B., C.V.O., LL.D., F.R.G.S., Chief Scout of the World of the Boy Scout Movement, for the Nobel Peace Prize for 1928.

His name and his fame in starting, and fostering this Movement over a long term of years, is in itself a recommendation for such a great honour, and as one who has taken an interest in the Movement and watched the progress of it throughout the world, I respectfully and with the greatest confidence submit to you this name for your most earnest consideration.

I have the honour to be,

Gentlemen,

Your most obedient servant,

W. H. Carrer

Major.

Member of Parliament, Westminster, London.

HOUSE OF COMMONS,
WESTMINSTER,
LONDON.
13th January 1928.

Sir,

I beg to thank you for your kind letter of December 20th last, referring to the recommendation which I have made of General Sir Robert Baden-Powell for the Nobel Peace Prize.

In this letter you ask me to give you some information as to what the Chief Scout has done, and I think I cannot do better than send to you two copies of the Report of the General Assembly of the League of Nations, who made an exhaustive enquiry into the Scout Movement as a factor in International Peace. You will see that this is printed in French as well as English. I beg, therefore, to enclose this Report for your kind consideration.

I have the honour to be,

Your obedient Servant,

W-H-Carter

Major.
Member of Parliament.

The Secretary,
The Nobel Stortings Committee,
OSLO, Norway.
