EXPECT MARINES ABOUT JULY 15

This Summer they will Have Meals Served in Dining Hall of New Gettysburg Academy Building. More are Coming.

Though the contract for the use of the college dormitories has not yet been signed, it is confidently expected that the United States Marine Corps officers will come here for their annual six months' summer school about July 15th, and plans looking to that event are now being made.

An innovation in the school this summer will be the arrangements for serving meals. In other years the officers either had the meals served by enlisted men in tents on the campus, took their meals at the hotels, or at various boarding houses in town. This summer it is the plan to have them served in the dining hall of the fine new Gettysburg Academy building now under construction on Prep Campus. The contractor expects to have that part of the building ready for use on the date specified for the opening of the camp.

As in other years the young officers will live in the dormitories on the campus. A number of them are expected to be accompanied by their wives, and the usual social events will mark their stay here. It is expected that there will be about twice as many this year as in former summers the general policy of the War and Navy Departments being to increase the size and efficiency of the Marine Corps.

On account of the school here it is expected that the armored car of the Marine Corps, which will visit eastern states this summer, will come to Gettysburg during the stay of the officers. The car has been designed for the purpose of exhibiting it to the thousands who are interested in the "eldest branch of the service," as well as proving of educational value for preparedness, etc. The eastern recruiting division takes in the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Ohio, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, and North Carolina.

The armored car in question is at present at the city of Boston, Mass., and is expected in this section during the latter part of the summer. It is understood to be equipped with a modern machine gun capable of firing 700 shots per minute, and equipped with a wireless field telegraph outfit, etc. Full details about the coming of the car will be announced later in the season.

NOT DAUNTED

In One Trying Experience, will Make the Trip Again.

Rev. Dr. G. A. McAlister, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Chambersburg, not deterred by his thrilling experiences on the Arab when it was torpedoed, will cross again. He intends to sail in July, going to Ireland to visit his aged mother. He will go on an American boat this time. Rev. Mr. McAlister has a number of friends in Gettysburg.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS

Mail Awaiting Call at the Local Post Office.

WILL OBSERVE FLAG DAY HERE

National Park Commission, Burgess Eicholtz, and Daughters of American Revolution All Take Action.

Upon a suggestion made by the National Park Commission this morning, Burgess Eicholtz issued a proclamation calling upon all Gettysburg citizens to observe next Wednesday, June 14th, as Flag Day, by decorating their homes and places of business with the national colors.

At the same time Gettysburg Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution issued a similar request to the people of town, and it is expected that the flag will be generally displayed here on the day designated. Flag Day is not a new institution, but for many years has been more or less generally observed throughout the United States. In the past few years, however, its popularity has been increasing by leaps and bounds until, in many places, fully as many flags may be seen on June 14th as on Memorial Day or Independence Day.

Added interest is also given to the event by reason of the proclamation issued from the headquarters of the Lincoln Highway Association several weeks ago, when towns all along the route of the highway from New York to San Francisco were asked to participate in Flag Day observance. The fluttering of the Stars and Stripes from coast to coast on one particular day was pictured by a publicity man of the association as "a continuous stream of red, white, and blue, some 3111 miles in length."

That Gettysburg will add its share to the occasion, and that the other towns in the county on the big highway route, as well as those communities not so fortunate, will also celebrate, is confidently expected.

GET FINE BUILDING

Hanover Square to be Beautified by Big New Structure.

Messrs. Sheppard and Myers have announced that the building which will be erected, corner of Center Square and Carlisle street, Hanover, will be a modern four story building, with basement.

The first floor corner room fronting thirty feet on Carlisle street and fifty feet on Center Square has already been leased by the Hanover Trust company. The McCrory Stores Corporation of New York has leased a frontage of forty-five feet on Carlisle street adjoining the Trust Company and extending in depth 115 feet to the Central Hotel and about fifty feet on Centre Square. The McCrory Corporation conducts the five and ten cent store in the Melhorn building, Carlisle street. Sheaffer & Plowman have taken the remaining frontage of thirty feet on Carlisle street, adjoining the Emlet building, for a motion picture theatre, which will extend the full depth of the lot, 115 feet.

The second floor will be entirely devoted to offices. No definite plans have been made for the occupancy of the third and fourth floors.

Charles M. Anderson, of Baltimore is the architect for the proposed building, and he is now working on the plans and specifications.

ODD FELLOWS' MEMORIAL

Largely Attended Service in Evergreen Cemetery on Sunday.

Memorial services were held in Evergreen cemetery on Sunday afternoon by Gettys Lodge of Odd Fellows. More than one hundred members of the lodge marched to the cemetery and decorated the graves with flowers and, afterward, all gathered at the oval in the center where Dr. Billheimer delivered a brief address, urging upon the membership to keep always fresh the memories of departed brothers in Odd Fellowship. An orchestra led the singing of several hymns. It was composed of Miss Nellie Kelly, William Martin, A. Z. Rogers, and Ernest Ohler. T. J. Winebrenner had charge of the service.

GETTYSBURG MAN GOES TO BRAZIL

Will Spend Several Months there in Research Work for University. Information to be Used in New Volume.

On a journey of 7,000 miles for the purpose of conducting research work for the University of Pennsylvania, Prof. B. F. Schappelle, for the past five years professor of Romance Languages at Gettysburg College, left town this morning. Prof. Schappelle will go to Brazil and will remain there at least until December. It is possible that he may locate permanently in that country.

He will sail on next Saturday, June 17th, from New York, on the steamship "Vasari," of the Lamport and Holt lines and will go direct to Rio de Janeiro. His work will take him about one thousand miles inland and he will travel almost to the borders of Argentine, working in four southern tier states.

The work which Prof. Schappelle will do is for the purpose of securing information to be used in a volume of the series which is now being published by the University of Pennsylvania. The series has been forming for the past fifteen years one new volume being issued annually.

The subject into which Prof. Schappelle will inquire will be "The Cultural Influence of the non-Portuguese Immigrants to Brazil." He will try, among other things, to find what proportion of the Europeans who have settled in Brazil have adopted the language of the Portuguese, and his endeavors will deal largely with a study of the people there.

Prof. Schappelle has been most popular among the students of College and the people of town, many of whom hope that he may later return to Gettysburg and again take up his residence here.

WOULD BRING ACTION

Auto Owners who Did not Get Share of the Business.

About one hundred and fifty members of the New York Credit Men's Association, en route to the national convention at Pittsburgh arrived in Gettysburg this afternoon on a special train, will take supper at Hotel Gettysburg, and leave during the evening over the Western Maryland.

Morgan Mickleby had charge of the battlefield trip and enlisted the aid of a number of automobile owners to take the party over the usual route. These helpers were, in most cases, persons who do not make a practice of doing "hacking" for pay and consequently do not secure the borough license, which is $1.00 for each passenger. Some others, regularly engaged in the tourist business, threaten to have action brought against Mr. Mickleby's friends for violating the ordinance through non-payment of this fee.

On Sunday about 100 members of the Philadelphia Funeral Benefit Association visited the field. They were registered at the Eagle.

UNDER HORSE

Shaft of Buggy Struck Bicycle Rider. Thrown from Wheel.

Congested traffic at the corner of York street and Centre Square Saturday evening caused what threatened for a moment to be a very serious accident. An automobile, a buggy, and a milk wagon were at the corner when Bernard Partridge tried to ride a bicycle between the latter two. He was struck on the arm by one of the shafts and thrown heavily to the street and under one of the horses. He managed to get out from under the animal and escaped being trampled, but he is suffering now from a very painfully bruised arm and is prevented from attending to his duties as press-man at The Times plant.

COMMITTEE TO MEET

Will Talk over Plans for Chautauqua Ticket Sale.

A meeting of the Chautauqua ticket canvassing committee will be held at 7:30 this evening in the Law Library of the Court House. The committee consists of the following: J. A. Cox, Wm. Arch McClean, Rev. Joseph B. Baker, C. S. Reaser, H. T. Weaver, M. K. Eckert, T. J. Winebrenner, J. O. G. Weaver, Charles W. Gardner, and Martin Winter.

ANOTHER LODGE TO LITTLESTOWN

Pick that Place for Convention, Parade and Many Other Events Usually Feature the Meetings. Business Done.

Littlestown is becoming one of Adams County's convention centers. The Red Men of York and Adams counties will gather there in August, numerous county conventions have selected that place during the last few years, and on Saturday the district association of the Ancient Order Knights of the Mystic Chain, in session at York Haven, selected Littlestown for their 1917 meeting.

The annual gatherings are usually matters of special interest. The street demonstration, held at York Haven Saturday, proved one of the features of the day. Five musical organizations, including four bands and a drum corps, headed more than 300 uniformed marchers. A conservative estimate of the number of visitors to the borough, including the visiting knights, is placed at 1,500. Special cars were operated over the lines of the York Railways company.

The procession disbanded at Pythian park, where White Rose commandery gave a drill in the pavilion in the presence of a large crowd. The drill was under the direction of General Gibbons and Charles Leas, and the members were greeted with hearty applause. Fifty dollars in prizes were awarded. The judges viewed the parade from the balcony at the Commercial hotel.

With a few exceptions every residence and business place in the town was elaborately decorated, the national colors and the emblem of the castle predominating. A large court of honor was erected across the street in front of the convention headquarters.

The report of the district deputies gives eleven castles in the district a membership of 1,975, an increase of probably 150 since the meeting a year ago. District No. 1, composed of the three York castles, Ivy, Star and York, alone has a membership of 924, a gain of 53. York castle with a total membership of 478 is the strongest of the order in the county.

SELECT MINISTER

Rev. E. C. Ruby Elected Pastor of Lutheran Church at York.

Rev. E. C. Ruby, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, of Camden, N. J., and a graduate of the local schools, was elected pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran congregation, North York, at a meeting held in the church Sunday. The election was unanimous. Rev. Mr. Ruby will succeed Rev. Charles L. Ritter, who resigned the pastorate of St. Peter's church to accept a call from the congregation of the First English Lutheran church of Mahanoy City, last April. He will assume his new duties the first Sunday in August.

Four years ago Rev. Mr. Ruby went to Camden and accepted the pastorate of St. Paul's church when it was yet a mission. Through the tireless efforts of its pastor the church now has a membership of more than 200, is self sustaining and on a fair road to greater achievements.

OVER HANDLEBARS

Cyclist Thrown into Rocks and Thickets on Culp's Hill

Earl Steinour, the eighteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Steinour, of Mummansburg street, had a narrow escape from serious injury while riding his bicycle Sunday afternoon. In company with Luther Steinour, of Breckenridge street, he was descending the avenue east of the observatory on Culp's Hill, when the brake failed to work. The wheel got beyond control and carried him off the side of the avenue into the rocks and thickets, where the wheel struck the odd breastworks and threw him about twenty feet over the handle bars. He was picked up by his companion. Upon examination it was found that he had received a deep gash in his head and also a sprained back. He is confined to his bed at his home to-day.

NOTICE TO VETERANS

Members of Corporal Skelly Post will meet at their hall, tomorrow, (Tuesday), at 10:30 a. m., to attend the funeral of Comrade Samuel Andrews.

COUNTY EVENTS IN FAIR LIST

Adams County Contributes Two Meetings to Long Array Published by State. Poultry Show Dates not Given.

The State Department of Agriculture to-day issues a list of the eighty six fairs to be held in the various counties this year. The list includes the annual fruit growers' meeting at Bendersville, and the Biglerville poultry show.

The fair season really begins about the time August merges into September. Some exhibitions are held earlier but mostly they are of the "grangers' picnic" class, which in numerous instances have most of the features of the regulation county fair.

Last year the attendance rose to 2,004,326, an increase of 173,604 over the previous year. The natural increase in attendance which comes with each year that sees favorable weather will be helped along in 1916 by an increase in premiums.

The eighty six fairs on the lists of the state department of agriculture are offering a total of $179,671.42 in premiums this year, which is $18,045 more than last year.

The list of exhibits in this county and those adjoining with the name of the association and secretary follows:

ADAMS—Bendersville, December 13-15; Fruit Growers' Association of Adams County; Edwin C. Tyson, Flora Dale, Gettysburg, date not fixed; Biglerville Agricultural, Horticultural and Poultry Association; O. C. Rice, Biglerville.

CUMBERLAND—Carlisle, September 18-22; Agricultural Society of Cumberland County; W. H. McCrea, Newville. Williams Grove, August 28-September 2; Great Grangers' Picnic Exhibition; R. H. Thomas, 3d, Mechanicsburg.

YORK—York, October 2-6; York County Agricultural Society; Henry C. Heckert, York, Hanover, September 12-15; Hanover Agricultural Society; S. A. Geiselman, Hanover, New Freedom, September 21-23; New Freedom Farmers' Improvement Association; M. F. Zeigler, New Freedom, Fawn Grove, August 9-11; Penn-Mar County Agricultural Association; Thomas W. Brown, Fawn Grove. Red Lion, September 6-9; Red Lion Fair Association; J. A. Miller, Red Lion. Stewartstown, September 6-8; Stewartstown Agricultural Association; W. H. Ebaugh, Stewartstown.

TO BUY C. V. S. N. S.

Change Expected to Take Place Prior to September First.

The passing over of the Millersville and Kutztown State Normal schools to state ownership has taken place. One of the next to be taken over, some time prior to September 1, is the Shippensburg Normal school, of which Dr. Ezra Lehman is the efficient and popular head. A meeting of the stockholders of this school will soon be called at which it is understood the state board of education will make an offer the acceptance of which is altogether likely.

The Shippensburg school is in splendid financial condition without a dollar of floating indebtedness and it is likely the state will incline to a better offer financially than has been made to some of the other schools.

TWO MORE STATUES

Both to be Ready for Dedication in Autumn of 1917.

Headed by Colonel Lewis Stegman, chairman, members of the New York State Monument Commission visited the battlefield to-day to select sites for monuments to Major General Doubleday and Brigadier General Robinson. It is likely that the memorials will be placed along the avenues on the First Day's Field, named for these commanders. The cost of each will be about $10,000. They will have a granite base and an heroic bronze statue of the commander. It is hoped to have them ready for dedication October 1917.

COMING EVENTS

June 13—Formal Opening of Kurtz Playground for 1916.
June 13, 14—Catholic High School Commencement Exercises.
June 22—Visit Philadelphia Grocers and Importers.
June 22-24—Base Ball Club Fair. New Eberhart Garage.
